456th meeting of M.N.S.
Tuesday, May 26, 1981
Doors open at 7:00 P.M.
Official meeting commences at 7:30 P.M.
Premises must be vacated at 9:45 P.M.
Meeting address: 8020 Forsyth near the corner of S. Brentwood Blvd. in Clayton.

Correspondence address:
M.N.S.
936 Forestlac Ct.
St. Louis, Mo. 63141
Library Phone: (314)481-7630
Library address: 5005 S. Grand,
St. Louis, Missouri 63111

LOCATION: We meet in the Prudential Savings and Loan Association building which is one block west of the St. Louis County Government Center in Clayton. One must enter this building by way of the underground parking garage. The garage entrance is a down-ramp off the south side of Forsyth. Parking is free for our members. A watchman is usually stationed near the garage elevator entrance. Proceed to the top level auditorium by elevator.

PROGRAM FOR MAY: The title of the program for this month is Byzantine Coinage.

FUTURE PROGRAMS: Members will be exposed to new programs such as--- The Byron Reed Collection, Counterfeiting Detection, Propaganda on Roman Imperial Coinage, 1878 Morgan Dollar Feather Varieties, How to Photograph Coinage, etc. Members are asked to submit their ideas about future programs to Bill Vaughan at this monthly meeting so that he can schedule it for the upcoming year.

Art Institute of Chicago: From now until September 7, the Art Institute displays a major exhibit which includes classical coinage titled "The Search for Alexander." If you go to Chicago this summer, try to see it.

Mercantile Money Museum: At Seventh and Washington in downtown St. Louis is located one of the banking giants of this state. On the podium level of the Mercantile Tower, one may visit the Mercantile Money Museum at no charge. This museum is open during regular banking hours on weekdays. Group tours may be arranged by calling 425-2050. Both adults and children will enjoy the exhibits.

M.N.S. AIRPORT MARRIOTT MOTOR HOTEL 3-DAY COIN FESTIVAL: From Friday through Sunday (August 7 through August 9) the best coin show of the year will occur in its normal St. Louis location. Our club is able to carry out its educational activities throughout the year because of the volunteer work of many of its members who make this annual show a success. Plan to help Show Chairman John Foster and his various committee chairpersons by volunteering a few hours time. Sign up for duty at this monthly meeting.

M.N.S. SHOW EXHIBITS: Mr. Ron Horstman is in charge of numismatic exhibits at the upcoming show. Contact him at the May 26 meeting for more information.

REPORTS CONCERNING MEMBER WELFARE: Mr. Frank Shea wants to hear about members who are suffering illness, hospitalized, etc.

Bill Vaughan, Corr. Sec'y

St. Louis, Mo. 63141
Library: Phone (314)481-7630
Library address: 5005 S. Grand,
St. Louis, Missouri 63111

LOCATION: Our monthly meeting is again at the Clayton office of the Prudential Savings and Loan Association. This building complex is located one block west of the St. Louis County Government Center on Forsyth Boulevard. One must enter the Prudential Savings and Loan Association building by way of the underground garage beneath the building complex. Parking is free. A watchman is usually stationed near the garage elevator entrance. Take the elevator up to the top level and walk through the halls to the auditorium.

REGISTRATION OF ATTENDANCE: Members are requested to announce their membership number to the club officials at the registration table upon entry. Guests should also be introduced to the club officers upon entry to the auditorium. Officers and directors of the club wear blue name tags.

SILENT AUCTION: Members may buy or sell numismatic material at the meeting by taking advantage of our silent auction procedures. The auction begins prior to our official meeting and ends a short time after adjournment.

PROGRAM FOR JULY: Mr. Jim Steffen, a Special Agent of the United States Secret Service, presents an illustrated program titled "Counterfeit Detection." Plan to attend this informative talk about a topic of interest to any numismatist.

PROGRAM FOR AUGUST: Mr. Clem Rowe presents "Historical Incidents Associated with Ancient Coins."

M.N.S. AIRPORT MARRIOTT MOTOR HOTEL 3-DAY COIN FESTIVAL: From Friday through Sunday (August 7 through August 9) our club sponsors the coin collecting event of the year in the St. Louis metropolitan area. Please volunteer to help Show Chairman John Foster and his committee chairmen make our big show a big success once again. Remember to show your club membership card upon entry to the show in order to become exempt from the $0.50 general admission fee charged to the public. Parking is still free at the enlarged Marriott Hotel facility. The show opens on all three days at 9:30 A.M.

FRIDAY TOUR OF THE MERCANTILE MONEY MUSEUM: Plan to join the chartered bus tour from the Airport Marriott Hotel to downtown St. Louis on the afternoon of August 7th. This round trip event will be available to the public for only $1.50 per person. Club founder Eric P. Newman's superb numismatic collection is featured at the Money Museum.

FOUNDED 1938

4/23/86

515TH regular meeting. Farmers Home Savings Building, 11710 Manchester Road. One mile east of I-270 on the south side of Manchester. Doors open at 7 PM, and the meeting will start at 7:30. Enter through the door on the east side of the building, and we meet downstairs.

PROGRAM FOR APRIL: ERIC P. NEWMAN!

Mr. Newman has graciously agreed to pinch-hit for our scheduled speaker, Dusty Reyer. As of this date (4/18/86) Mr. Newman's topic will be a surprise to all of us. But what a substitute - sort of like having Stan Musial on the bench.. Dusty's presentation will be rescheduled.

PROGRAM FOR MAY: RON HORSTMAN will discuss "advertising banknotes".

BOURSE ACTIVITY: You're all encouraged to bring material for sale or trade. First come, first served on the tables.

Sadly noted is the death of our member, Jake Verdin.
